meet the makers master classes

These classes were introduced in 2009 and proved to be very popular with wine lovers far and wide. Our first meet the makers master class for 2010 starts in May, we recommend you book early.

These events run for half an hour prior to uncorked beginning and enables you to meet the wine maker and sample some of their wines with a more personalised approach.

The cost is $15 per person and bookings are essential as spaces are limited.

PRIMO ESTATE

The philosophy from the first vintage in 1979 has been to strive for excellence with an accent on innovation and experimentation. Primo Estate has grown with the planting of vineyards in Clarendon and McLaren Vale. In 2006 Primo Estate opened a stunning new McLaren Vale cellar door and tasting room.

JACOB'S CREEK™ True Character

Way back in 1847, a young Bavarian immigrant by the name of Johann Gramp planted the Barossa Valley's first commercial vineyard on the banks of Jacob's Creek. Today, Johann's original cellar is still standing at Jacob's Creek. It's a testament to his enduring passion for wine.

21 May 2010

Master class

Whistler Wines is dedicated to producing fine wines from their Heysen Estate vineyard at Marananga, in the heart of the famous Barossa Valley. Whistler wines reflect the region of western Barossa and are defined by their vineyard management, unique soils and the climate experienced throughout each individual vintage.

4 June 2010

Due to unforeseen circumstances uncorked will not be held on this date.

18 June 2010

Master class

Annie's Lane wines rely on regional and varietal expression and have been awarded with over 350 trophies and medals at wine shows in Australia and across the globe since the first release in 1996. The home of Annie's Lane is the heritage listed Quelltaler winery at Watervale, in the Clare Valley's south.

CHARLES MELTON

FINE BAROSSA RED WINES

Since the first vintage of Charles Melton Wines in 1984, this small Barossa Valley winery has gained both national & international recognition for its premium red table wines. Charlie was one of the first to recognize the value and tradition of the Barossa's old vineyard Grenache, Shiraz and Mourvedre.
